FHSU FACULTY RECEIVE AWARDS FROM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

3/3/97 ekp Local, Today

The Hays Area Chamber of Commerce recognized two Fort Hays State University faculty members with awards at its annual banquet.

Clare Gustin, director of the Small Business Development Center, received the Athena Award, given jointly by the chamber and James Motor Company. The award honors women in business based on assistance and unselfish support of other business women, excellence in their profession, initiative and creativity, community service and leadership

Dr. Larry Gould, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, received the Hall of Fame Award from the chamber. The award recognizes his long-term community service, demonstrated excellence in his profession and his history of civic involvement.
